

Reminders

I hope you received and have found time to page through your 2017 Buyer's Guide! The over 90 forest products industry companies represented in the Guide encourage you to keep it handy as you consider your product needs for the coming year. If you happen to damage or misplace your copy, no worries, as a free downloadable issue will be available on our website (www.sawmillmag.com) for the entire year. If you have friends who might find the Buyer's Guide useful, please remind them that they can also download it for free whether or not they are a subscriber. They'll thank you for the pointer.

I want to remind you that a digital edition and app versions of Sawmill & Woodlot magazine are now available in addition to our standard print version. If you'd like to have a digital copy of the magazine sent directly to your phone, tablet, laptop, or desktop, these are great options. To check out the features that the digital edition offers, go to our website and click on the Subscribe tab at the top of the page. Next, select Sample Digital Edition at the bottom of the pull-down menu. When you get access to the issue, you can view the articles in a designed version (exactly as they would appear in the print version) or in a text-only version. You can view the articles in PDF format and print them if you like. In addition, if you see a product of interest in an ad, you can click on the advertiser's URL and go directly to their website. Or, click the e-mail contact and communicate with them then and there. Just as with the Buyer's Guide, if you have a friend who might have an interest in the digital or app version, please let them know about it!

A third, and, perhaps, the most important reminder—we want to hear from you! Remind us of the topics you want to see covered in the pages of Sawmill & Woodlot magazine. Just as we've done for over 20 years now, we want to continue to publish on the issues most important to you. So, e-mail walter@sawmillmag.com. Send a note to our postal address in the masthead. Or, stop by our booth at a trade show. The Northeast Forest Products Expo, NY State Woodsmen's Field Days, and The Paul Bunyan Show are just a few of the larger shows we will attend this year.

In closing, a reminder that in October of this year we will host the Great Portable Sawmill Shoot-Out® at the Paul Bunyan Show. We want to have as many mills represented as possible, so please encourage the vendors you'd like to see in the event to sign up early. Thank you for being a reader and for your continued support!
