Welcome to The Great Portable Sawmill Shoot-Out PREVIEW ISSUE

Every two years, The Great Portable Sawmill Shoot-Out® showcases an assemblage of state-of-the-art sawmills operated by expert sawyers as a part of the Paul Bunyan Show in Cambridge, Ohio. This year, 14 mills will participate. For anyone considering the purchase of a mill, the event is a singular opportunity to view the variety of machines on the market operating side-by-side to achieve the same fundamental goal, high-grade lumber. The Shoot-Out demonstrations also offer spectators a unique chance to observe and learn skills and techniques that will make their own work more productive.

To those who plan to attend the Paul Bunyan Show and The Great Portable Sawmill Shoot-Out®, please stop by our booth and say hello. And if you'll be at the show, why not consider signing up for one or all of our seminar offerings presented by Brian Bond (see page 33) for full details and to register. To readers who won't make it to the show this year, no worries—the December 2017/January 2018 issue of Sawmill & Woodlot magazine will feature full coverage and complete results of the event. We look forward to seeing as many of you as possible.
