

Register for the Sawmill Seminar Series!

As we head into the lazy days of summer, most of us think about relaxing and fun with family and friends. At Sawmill & Woodlot magazine, we are busy making plans for this year's Great Firewood Shoot-Out™ and Sawmill Seminar Series. As in previous years, the seminars will be presented by Brian Bond of Virginia Tech. Brian is a Professor and Extension Specialist in the Department of Sustainable Biomaterials and has spearheaded the Sawmill Seminar Series for the past 10 years. This year's lineup is listed below.

We hope many of you will be able to take advantage of these seminars, as they offer an interesting and affordable opportunity to interact with others in the field and to have direct access to a knowledgeable and practice-oriented professional.

You can sign up for the seminars at www.ohioforest.org, the official site for The Paul Bunyan Show and the Ohio Forestry Association.
