

Publisher's Letter

I want you to know that we are currently renovating our fulfillment process. For the moment, we ask that you direct inquiries regarding new subscriptions, renewals, payments, and subscription fulfillment to one of the following phone numbers:

207/338-0300
or 207/322-6422

We will have our completely new fulfillment system up and running by the time of the next issue. Once that new system is in place, it will be easy for you to securely and directly manage your subscription from our website (www.sawmillmag.com).

Routine requests like address changes, renewals, gifts, etc., will be fully automated on the website, which will minimize the need for you to contact us directly—although we always enjoy hearing from readers!

Stay tuned and I'll update you in the next issue.

In the meantime, if you have any questions about your subscription, please contact us at one of the numbers above.

Lastly, we apologize for any difficulties you may have encountered while managing your subscription during this changeover. Thanks for bearing with us.
